

PATROL BEATS REVAMPED BY POLICE HEADS

New Schedule Expected To Increase Force's Efficiency

ABANDON NIGHT AND DAY SHIFTS

All Patrolmen On Equal Basis Under Rotating System

A revamping of the shifts, or "beats", of members of the police department in order to provide more efficient operation and to place all patrolmen on an equal basis, was disclosed today by Safety Director C. E. Donahay.

The plan, conceived by the safety director and Mayor George Harhoff, following a study of police department operations in cities comparable to Salem, is termed a rotating system. It went into effect Thursday.

Work Five Different Shifts
Under the new setup, the five members of the beat, excluding Chief Ralph Stoffer, will work five different shifts from time to time. The hours of the new shifts have been posted.

The shifts will change every two weeks, with the officer in No. 1 position moving back to No. 5 and the others moving up a notch. Two weeks later the shifts will rotate again.

As a result of the new plan there is only one hour in 24 when only one officer is on duty. Previously there was a three-hour period in the morning when the department had only one man on duty.

Three on Duty

Hereafter, also, three patrolmen will be on duty in the afternoons and at night, with two officers on the job in the mornings. The chief works days, although subject to call at night.

The force includes Patrolmen Nerr Gaunt, James Hassey, George Reash, Paul Ormsby and Clifford Todd.

33 WILL APPEAR IN SENIOR PLAY

"The Yellow Jacket" To Be Presented December 9 and 10

The largest cast ever assembled for a High school production, numbering 33 persons, will be seen in the Senior class play, "The Yellow Jacket," to be presented in the High school auditorium, Dec. 9 and 10.

The costume play, written by Ben Rino, is an English adaptation of a Chinese play which has been a Broadway success for a number of years. It has played in 16 foreign countries.

The members of the cast have been rehearsing under the supervision of Director James McDonald, since Oct. 29. The student thespians are anxiously awaiting dress rehearsals next Monday and Tuesday.

Contrast In Action
Action of the play is odd in contrast to the regular American dramas and all scenery is handled in full view of the audience.

According to Chinese custom, the property men are supposed to be invisible, remaining on the stage to move and change scenery whenever necessary.

All properties and costumes have been made and painted by High school pupils. Theme of "The Yellow Jacket" concerns the life of a young Chinaman from the time of his birth until he becomes mandarin of his province. His hardships through life are depicted in the story.

Mary Helen Brudery, as "May Fah Loy," the heroine, and Don Beattie, as "Wee Hoo Goo," the hero, have the principal roles.

Others in the cast include: Ralph Taylor as governor of the province; Gladys Whitacre, "Due Jung Fah," second wife of Wu Sin Yen; Betty Albright, "Tao," wife of "Due Jung Fah"; Joseph Bush, "Tai Fah Min," second father-in-law; Jane Cope, "Chee Moo," first wife of "Wu Sin Yen"; Charles Trotter, "Lee Sen," a farmer; Betty Lee Lyons, "Suey Sen Fah," wife of "Lee Sen."

Russell Frank, "Ling Won," a spirit; Steve Balan, "Wee Fah Den," a villain; Lee Wilms, "Yen Guey Gong," purveyor of hearts; Gene Christy, "See Quoi Fah"; Merna O'Neill, "Mow Dan Fah"; Elizabeth Elder, "Yong Soo Kow"; and Roberta McCready, "Chow Wan."

Sing Chinese Songs
The last four mentioned comprise a quartet to sing Chinese songs. Virginia Hurray, "See Noi," nurse of May Fah Loy; Joseph Vogelhaber, "Fai Char Shooing," purveyor of tea; Charlotte Morey, "Widow Ching"; Pauline Hilditch, maid to "Widow Ching"; William Brooks, "Git Hook Gar," a philosopher and scholar; Richard Cavanaugh, "Loy Gong" and Paul Meier, "Kon Toi." Ray Coppock is first assistant property man; Donald Rother, second; Herbert Arfman, third, and Lloyd Marshall, fourth. Head property man is Robert Kaminsky.

Harold Hoprich as the reader describes the action in the play while the orchestra comprises Martha Farmer, Charles Wentz and William Jones.

WAGE-HOUR BILL FACES REVISION

Sponsors of Legislation Fight To Prevent Changes

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Supporters of the battered wage-hour bill, successful in forcing a house vote this month, began a new fight today to save it from general revision.

Almost before the ink dried yesterday on the final signature to a petition freeing the bill from the rules committee, critics discussed proposals to modify or defeat it.

One group wants to strike all geographical differentials from the measure, a goal which would intensify the already heated north-south conflict over the measure.

A. F. L. Drafts Ideas
As the battle lines formed, the American Federation of Labor's executive council met to draft new recommendations concerning labor standards legislation.

The federation recently opposed administration of the program by a proposed five-member independent board. The house labor committee agreed to substitute a single administrator under the jurisdiction of the labor department.

Many other changes already have been made in the bill since it passed the senate last summer. Because the senate will have to vote on all the house alterations,

"HATCHET MEN" PLAN SHOWDOWN

Sound of Whetting On Senate Grindstone More Audible Today

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Dec. 3.—Sounds of whetting on the senate grindstone definitely were more audible today as the leader of the "hatchet men" declared that Gov. Martin L. Davey's $238,333 supplemental budget never would pass the senate.

"We are going to have a financial showdown," said Lieut. Gov. Paul P. Yoder, head of the bloc that wrecked the previous administration budget.

He said a supplemental budget "is not needed," except for three departments, and asserted that he "doubted" it Governor Davey's plan to make unemployment insurance benefits available Jan. 1, instead of one year later, by amending the state law, could be enacted. Yoder did not elaborate on the insurance law amendment but said a survey he had made revealed the state tax commission had more than $126,340 available for the last six weeks of this year which could have been used for salaries of employees who have been laid off.

He termed the layoffs a "political gesture" and said that the Davey administration proposed to hire new employees as replacements later.

Tetlow Lauds Step To End Soft Coal Depression Era

Member of National Bituminous Coal Commission Comments On Minimum Price Fixing

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Percy Tetlow, who emerged from Ohio's coal mines to become recognized labor authority and member of the national bituminous coal commission, today appraised the commission's work in fixing minimum prices as a step toward ending "the depression years of soft coal."

"Our undertaking is gigantic," said Tetlow, "but in spite of the complications it is quite feasible and acceptable to the industry to have minimum prices for soft coal at the mine fixed under government supervision."

Tetlow, eager worker for better labor conditions, began his career as a coal miner at the age of 12. In 1913, he was a member of the Ohio legislature and there won passage of the first state bill to limit hours of work.

"It is not difficult to understand why I am proud of the opportunity to contribute to the work the government is doing to rehabilitate the soft coal industry and thus assure fair and just returns to the hundreds of thousands of citizens directly affected," he said.

Tetlow added in organizing the United Mine Workers of America back in 1890. In 1921, Gov. Harry L. Davis named him state director of industrial relations.

Tetlow, veteran of the Spanish-American and World wars, said his directorship "taught me a valuable lesson. I realized the tremendous force for stabilization and mediation that the government can exert in the field of industry."

CANFIELD MAN IS KILLED BY ALLIANCE CAR

J. C. Gurman, 53, Struck As He Walks Along Highway

REV. E. R. ROMIG IS EXONERATED

Eight-Year-Old Boy Canton's 31st Fatality Of Year

John C. Gurman, 53, of Canfield, was killed instantly while walking along Route 46, one-half mile north of Canfield, at 7:20 p. m. Thursday when struck by an automobile driven by Rev. E. R. Romig, pastor of the Methodist church at Alliance.

Gurman's death brought the number of pedestrians killed within the past week on district highways to four. Two fatalities were recorded only yesterday.

The victim, a former navy man, was thrown against a guard rail after being hit by the car. His body was badly crushed. Rev. Romig, returning from Youngstown, was exonerated by Coroner D. H. Houser of Mahoning county.

Didn't See Gurman
The minister told authorities he didn't see Gurman walking along the highway until the instant before the car struck him.

Gurman had been discharged honorably only recently from the United States Navy after serving four years and 18 days as a gunner on the Battleship Maryland.

The body was removed to the Williams funeral home at Canfield where the funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday in charge of Rev. George Gibson, pastor of the Methodist church. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery at Poland.

The victim is survived by two sons and two daughters, Leonard V. and Gilbert J. Gurman and Mrs. Pearl E. Devitch and Mrs. Bertha Devitch all of Warren.

Also surviving are his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Gurman of Poland; one brother, James T. of Youngstown, and two sisters, Mrs. R. S. Martin of Poland and Mrs. Anna J. Libert of Lowellville.

Canton's 31st Victim

Canton, Dec. 3.—Canton's 1937 traffic toll stood at 31 today with the death of eight-year-old Earl Alvin Huston, who was run over by a truck on his way home from a grocery store.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Dec. 3.—Funeral service will be held here Saturday for Albert Denoon, 42, Columbiana county's 38th traffic victim this year, who was killed Wednesday when struck by a truck, driven by Charles Howell.

Michigan and Irish Resume Athletics

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Michigan and Notre Dame renewed athletic relations today after a break of 28 years.

Fielding H. Yost, director of athletics for the Wolverines, confirmed the healing of the breach at the opening of the Big Ten's two-day winter meeting.

Coaches of minor sports, he said, have been instructed to schedule events with the Irish starting at the turn of the New Year.

Booking of football games between the two natural rivals, he added, could not be considered now because of date commitments until the 1941 season.

Borgwardt, On Witness Stand, Tells Story Of Broken Love

Murder Defendant Recalls Trysts With Evelyn Cranston, Marriage and Wedded Life

LISBON, Dec. 2.—A story of broken romance was unfolded yesterday before the jury of eight women and four men which is sitting in judgment on German-born Johannes Borgwardt for the shotgun slaying of his former mother-in-law, Mrs. Ruth Cranston.

It was Borgwardt's story, told in the terms of a man who had lost his greatest love.

The blond 23-year old defendant calmly related the story of his life as he took the stand in his own defense of a "not guilty by reason of temporary insanity" plea.

Tells of Youth and Love
He told of his early youth in Germany and America; of his marriage to Evelyn Cranston; of parental objection to the love-match and finally of the divorce which separated him from his pretty young wife.

Born March 13, 1914, the son of a German soldier, Borgwardt said his early life was spent in Germany, Westphalia and East Prussia. The family came to America in 1927, locating at Rochester, N. Y., where the father preached at a German church near the city.

Borgwardt attended a foreign grammar school until he was familiar with the English language and then entered high school where he studied for a year and a half. He left school to work in a printing shop, he related to the jury.

His employment at the Fred Schoeni farm adjoining the Cranston home in Knox township followed jobs in a jewelry store in Rochester and a cafeteria in California. A friend in Youngstown secured work for him on the Schoeni farm, he said.

Met at Church
Borgwardt's first meeting with the girl who later became his wife was at the Bethel Reformed church in the spring of 1933. He testified that Mr. and Mrs. Cranston took an immediate dislike to him because he was "only a hired man and a foreigner."

He met frequently with Miss Cranston after this, Borgwardt related. "Mr. Cranston was working away from home at that time and Mrs. Cranston would sometimes leave the house. Evelyn would call me on the phone or whistle at a point near the barn," he said, adding that they often discussed marriage at their meetings.

During one of their trysts, Borgwardt said, they were caught by members of the family and he was threatened with arrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Cranston took Evelyn to East Liverpool for a short time and it was after this that the young couple decided to be married, Borgwardt testified.

Cleveland Physician Examines Murder Defendant

LATTER SAYS HE CAN'T REMEMBER

Asserts He Still Loves Divorced Wife, Victim's Daughter

LISBON, Dec. 3.—With Johannes Borgwardt, accused slayer of his mother-in-law, on the stand, defense counsel in the first degree murder trial indicated today that they may close their testimony sometime Monday.

There will be no court Saturday, and although Borgwardt is regarded as the chief defense witness, it is possible that others may be called to the stand inasmuch as additional witnesses have been subpoenaed by the defense.

Prosecution asks the death penalty for the slaying of Mrs. Ruth Cranston, 45, at her home near Westville last Aug. 10. Borgwardt's defense is based on an insanity plea.

Court Room Packed
Common pleas court room was packed to the walls again today as Borgwardt, who told his life story yesterday, resumed his testimony.

He submitted to an examination by Dr. T. A. Burke of Cleveland, a former psychiatrist at Newberg state hospital, this morning.

Later the psychiatrist took the witness stand and described the defendant as a paranoid and an introvert. An introvert, he defined, is a person always thinking of himself and pitying himself. Borgwardt, said Dr. Burke, has delusions of persecution and added that the defendant's mental condition is due, in part, at least, to the blow on the head he is said to have received when a boy.

The blow, said the psychiatrist, probably left a fibrous brain scar. The examination, under cross examination by Assistant Prosecutor Tobin, replied "I don't know," when asked why he killed Ruth Cranston. Showed a picture of the victim after the shooting and asked "is that the way she looked after you shot her?" Borgwardt said "I don't remember."

Doesn't Remember Shooting
He admitted, however, that he looked in the window that night and saw her lying on the bed. He didn't remember firing the shot.

When questioned by one of his own attorneys concerning his attitude toward his divorced wife at the present time, the youth replied, "I'm in love with her as I've always been."

He said he didn't blame her for their separation but blamed Mrs. Cranston because "she had a lot of influence" over her daughter, Evelyn, aged 20.

He told the jury he was tired and sleepy and following his arrest at Alliance he was willing to sign anything (referring to the confession) in order to get some sleep and a bite to eat.

He also denied going to the Cranston farm home to kill anyone.

TOES

There's no way of telling, but many Americans are sure that if their patriotic toes had been stepped on as hard and often at one time as they are being stepped on now in the orient, their fists would be doubled up and swinging.

The fact nothing happens today is believed in some quarters to be a sign of national decadence. No one seems to be particularly proud of it, even though many are relieved in their innermost hearts that the United States has not developed a war party over its grievances.

The truth of the matter is, the United States and possibly one or two other major powers now place skin saving ahead of toe saving in order of importance. The sensitivity and importance of their pedal dignity is declining in direct ratio to the increasing sensitivity and importance of their skins.

Patriots may rave and blame this on the creeping paralysis of American pacifism, but it remains a fact to be dealt with—a fact which the strong-arm governments trampling out their "destinies" in the Mediterranean and the far east are, it is sad to say, dealing with in their copyrighted realistic manner.

BACK SCRATCHING

Log rolling—which should be called back scratching because no one rolls logs any more—has broken into the news in connection with a little deal between the south's cotton congressmen and the north's wage-hour wingers.

If the south wants cotton control; i. e., subsidies, say the wage-hour zealots, it had better tell its congressmen to quit blocking their bill. The other side of the trade is, of course, that if the regimentalists want wage-hour control they had better quit trying to kick the south around.

It takes two parties to engage in reciprocity on back scratching—two parties with equally itchy backs.
Otherwise, the deal's off.

Back scratching is as fundamental a part of legislating in a representative democracy as oratory.
Naturally, it never compels admiration, but it makes the wheels move, and that's the big problem in law-making.

Sometimes it produces bad results, perhaps two bad bills where no bill at all would be better. But it's so much to be preferred on the whole to rubber stamping, which threatened to displace it, that its reappearance is almost good news.

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND

The theory of price control is reopened for discussion by announcement that soft coal prices after Dec. 15 will be regulated by the federal bituminous coal commission.

Briefly, the theory is that if federal authority is used to permit industry to freeze prices where it wants them everybody will be happier, including consumers.

The soft coal industry liked this theory so well that miners and operators joined forces after the national recovery act was ruled unconstitutional to obtain passage of a miniature recovery act for coal.
When that, too, was ruled unconstitutional, they compromised on the present act.

Consumers are disarmed at the outset by assurance that they will pay less, not more, for coal. The extra freight, it seems, is to be borne by industry and railroads. Passing over the folly of smacking these work horses in the nose when they need a pat on the back, this must be about the first case on record where the new deal didn't forget to remember the forgotten man when it was boosting prices.

It's noted that the consumers' counsel on the bituminous coal commission is John Carson. He must have worked like a beaver. We hope he works like a colony of beavers from now on.

THE STARS SAY

For Saturday, December 4

Most propitious auguries for progress and prosperity mark this day, according to the lunar and mutual aspects. Business, finance and all pertaining to writings, publication and promotions should flourish, possibly following some sudden news of importance.
However, there will be stubborn obstacles, frustrations and possible postponements to be handled tactfully.
The social, domestic and affectional lives also are under a sign of high adventure and pleasurable activity. Treasure a powerful friendship.

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year of splendid opportunity for promotion, enlarged finances and enhanced popularity and prestige.
Both big business and all pertaining to writings and publishing should offer scope for high achievement, despite certain frustrations, delays and setbacks.
Hasty news may figure in events.

A child born on this day may be versatile, talented, quick and witty, although studious and profound and of sound judgment and responsibility. It may be personally gracious, popular and sentimental.

frank biographic cameos of Ernest Hemingway? They can have all the modern singers if they'll leave me Bobbie Breen. And—what a thrill for her—I'm beginning to fall for Garbo. Any day now I may come out for the Marx Brothers.

Newspaper photographers have their little trick of handling a snub. Their association gives a ball annually, part of the proceeds going to charity, and they invite biggies of stage and cinema to caper in the show that follows. Most performers respond, realizing the lens lads are dandy publicity avenues.
Now and then one doesn't, and when he or she roars in on the Century or sails up the bay there is a great to-do by the camera boys. Clicking away at all sorts of poses, ha, ha, to dead boxes. Beatrice Lillie was the most recent target for an enfilade of snapshots that were never snapped.

Few writing men are more versatile and modest than Homer Croy. Even his best seller first book, "West of the Water Tower," was written anonymously. He lived in Paris a year, writing advertising jingles and collecting material for another best seller, "They Had to See Paris." Croy was born on a Missouri farm 20 miles from the birthplace of Dale Carnegie. He was first to encourage Carnegie, when he was catching at the brass ring. One of Croy's particular cronies was the late Chic Sale. They held a reunion in New York for a week each year.

Croy is most original of the letter writers. In fact, he so impressed a group of advertisers years ago with a letter that they sent him on a trip around the world to exploit his idea. His signature is always followed with some self-imposed and often ribald title And he has a way of startling those addressed. A few hours after arriving in Paris one summer I received a petit blue from him. It contained a personal from a Plattsburg, Mo. weekly paper about my father, reading: "H. B. McIntyre attended the ball game at St. Joe yesterday." Another time a friend of Croy's arrived in London to receive a milk bill he had neglected in the haste of sailing. There was a sharp note asking him to remit promptly to Croy. How Croy got hold of it nobody knows.

Not many notch a greater sappiness than the attitude strikers who give hat check girls $5 bills. This gesture is made with a flourish when a crowd is around. Hundreds are dished out in this fashion.
None of which goes to the beauts of the cloak rooms.
The concessionaires pay fixed salaries to the girls and they must turn in everything, even up to and including the $5 tip. Anything larger than $5 is split 50-50.

For years I've tried to hike up courage to murmur pleasantly to the hat check girl and walk airily off without leaving a coin. But a feeling of outrageous guilt overwhelms and I shell out a quarter. I cannot even shuck it down to a dime. That is—save a single exception. Receiving my hat and coat and in the manner of plunging into an icy bath, I plinked a dime on the plate. But on way to the exit I stepped on the dangling end of the coat and tried to run up a seam or something. Since then I've been a straight quarter man.

HEALTH

Dr. Copeland

Knock Knees
IN YEARS past, rickets was the cause of many unsightly deformities. I am glad to say that as a result of improvement in infant feeding, particularly the giving of cod liver oil or a substitute at an early age, they are no longer common.

"Genu valgum" is the big name the doctors give to the familiar condition known as "knock knees."
This deformity of posture is rather frequently observed in young children and is usually caused by neglect in early life.

The deformity may be the result of walking or standing in an abnormal position. A blow or other injury to the limbs during early infancy may cause it. Paralysis and flat-foot are additional factors that must be considered.

I receive many letters requesting information as to how to prevent or cure this deformity. Happily, when a young child is found to show signs of genu valgum, if the weight is kept off the legs, in all probability the deformity will straighten itself out. But this is only possible for children under the age of six.

Some authorities advise that the inner sole of the shoes should be thickened and the child taught to stand and walk with the toes in.
If the bones are unusually soft because of rickets, splints or braces should be worn.

After Six Years

Between the age of six and puberty the deformity can be corrected to a certain degree by the wearing of corrective braces and special shoes. Care should be given to teach the youngster proper posture, and the child should be taught to walk and stand without turning the feet outwardly to too great a degree.

Genu valgum, as found in an adult or in a youth after puberty, cannot be corrected by these simple measures. Once the bones have become firm, the deformity can be corrected only by means of an operation.

This is known as "Macwen's operation." The bone is cut partly through and then broken at a certain level, so that the deformity is corrected. The leg is then placed in the correct position and by means of a plaster of paris cast kept so for several weeks.

In its causes there is a similar condition known as bowlegs. The physical effects are the reverse of genu valgum or knock knees. Here, too, the treatment consists of feeding and manipulation up to the age of six, and remedy by operation only after the age of puberty.

Chinese Bomb Breaks Up Jap Victory March; Troops Ordered Off American Area

(By Associated Press) SHANGHAI, Dec. 3.—Japanese troops yielded today to spirited demands by Col. Charles F. B. Price, commander of the United States Fourth Marines, and withdrew from a portion of the American defended sector of the international settlement.

The Japanese had encroached upon American-defended streets when they took over a part of the international settlement after explosion of a small bomb or hand grenade tossed at a victory parade of 5,000 Japanese troops.

Observers expressed the belief that prompt action by Price prevented development of a dangerous situation.

Protests Unheeded

The Japanese held the parade despite protests of American and other foreign officials, and after the explosion took over a 30 square block area.

They erected barbed wire entanglements, blocked all traffic and prevented Americans and foreigners from reaching their hotels and homes.

Price reminded the Japanese commander that Japanese troops had advanced three blocks into the American defended sector, which could not be tolerated.

In a spirited interview, the Japanese officer assured Price that he had been unaware his forces had marched within the American sector. He expressed regret and ordered his troops to withdraw. He also ordered removal of barbed wire barricades as far as Yuyachang road.

Soon Japanese correspondents reported that all Japanese units occupying the section in the heart of the international settlement were withdrawing.

Five persons were wounded in the parade explosion on Nanking road. Three were Japanese, one was a Chinese constable and the fifth was a British police sub-inspector.

Chinese Is Blamed

A Chinese, who was shot by a constable immediately after the explosion, was blamed for the explosion.

WAGE-HOUR BILL FACES REVISION

Speaker Bankhead and other leaders were reluctant to estimate the bill's chances for getting to President Roosevelt before the special session ends during Christmas week. It probably will come before the house on Dec. 13.

Board To Fix Minimum

Both versions of the measure would empower a labor standards board to fix minimum wages as high as 40 cents an hour and a work week of 40 or more hours for workers in interstate industries.

Even before completion of the petition, circulated after Republicans and southern Democrats on the rules committee had blocked the bill for months, charges were made in the house that "log-rolling" and undue pressure had been used to get signatures.

In its present form, Representative Ramspeck (D-Ga.) said the legislation would affect the wages of about 2,000,000 workers but he said it had been estimated the hours of a larger number would be affected. Representative Dies (D-Tex.), a critic of the bill, asserted it "would not do anybody any good" and would affect only about 550,000 workers.

Completion of the wage-hour petition removed one of the greatest obstacles from the path of the administration's legislative program.

The first half of the special session, however, ended today without approval of any of the President's recommendations.

Almost two weeks of senate debate had left the farm bill bogged down under prolonged speech-making.

House leaders hoped to pass their farm bill by tomorrow night. But senate chieftains said that chamber would require at least another week of argument.

TELLS STORY OF LOST ROMANCE

Borgwardt Takes Witness Stand In Murder Hearing

The ceremony was performed at Wellsburg, W. Va. and they returned to the Cranston farm where they lived for several months before moving to furnished rooms in Sebring.

"Mrs. Cranston was working in a Sebring pottery at that time," Borgwardt related, "and after work she would come to our rooms to wait for her husband to take her home. Knowing she disliked me I stayed away as much as possible while she was in the house."

No Trouble First Year

During their first year of married life, they had no trouble, Borgwardt said, but later, he declared, when his wife began quoting things her mother said, the differences started.

One of the things Mrs. Cranston told her daughter, Borgwardt said, was that she "could have done better if she wanted to and that she should have married an American."

Family troubles continued to grow and finally Borgwardt's wife told him she was going back to her parents. When told this, Borgwardt said he took counsel with some friends, who suggested he take a trip on the assumption that his wife would change her mind while he was gone.

"I went to North Carolina," Borgwardt said, "but when I came back Evelyn said she still felt the same way about it. I asked Mrs. Cranston why Evelyn was leaving me and she said Evelyn was young to be married and wanted to run around with some other fellows."

DUFFY LASHES PAROLE ACTION

Says Conditions Uncovered By Jury Have Caused a "Sink to High Heaven"

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Dec. 3.—Att'y Gen. Herbert S. Duffy asserted today that conditions uncovered by a special grand jury investigation of the state parole system caused a "sink to high heaven."

His observation was made coincident with a statement that he expected the grand jury to indict more than one person and that a proposed investigation in Stark county had been postponed indefinitely.

"If the stories related here have a smattering of truth, the whole thing stinks to high heaven," Duffy said. "The question of proving anything in court, however, is a different matter."

The jury called back to the witness stand Arch W. Naylor, friend of Leland S. Dougan, chairman of the state parole board, and expected his testimony to consume the remainder of the day.

Duffy said convening of the grand jury at Canton, originally scheduled for Dec. 7, was postponed "because of developments in Columbus."

Naylor is a native of Stark county and the attorney general hoped to have him testify there after he refused previously to testify here unless granted immunity. The request eventually was granted and the "star witness" of the investigation spent three hours on the witness stand Wednesday.

All's "White" Now

WILSON, N. C.—A truck owned by J. Oliver White and driven by Carson White collided with a car owned by John White and driven by his son, William White.

To make the record complete: The truck was painted white and it was loaded with milk — need we point out that milk is white?

Prof. Picarde Plans Record Descent Into Ocean Depths

(By International News Service) BRUSSELS, Nov.—The scientist who ascended 10 miles into the stratosphere has decided to descend seven miles into the sea.

Prof. Auguste Picarde, Belgian aeronautical expert and world-famed balloonist, today revealed plans for a new kind of scientific expedition. He plans to go down six or seven miles into the depths of the Pacific ocean to study depth pressure as he once studied stratospheric rarity.

"I have been studying the possibility of such a trip for some time," Prof. Picarde said. "It remains for some zoological or scientific institution to say whether it shall be realized."

Aluminum Diving Bell

Asked what type of diving bell he would use, he explained that it would be something similar to the hermetically sealed aluminum gondola he used for the stratosphere flight he made some years ago aided by his brother Jean.

"It need not be of steel," Picarde said. "There are other metals or alloys capable of standing the enormous pressure just as well as steel."

"There would be room for myself and an assistant, and we should need oxygen and air-purifying apparatus."

He pointed out that Prof. William Beebe, of New York, had been down in the sea over half-a-mile, and there was no reason why that distance couldn't be improved upon.

Cost Relatively Little

The Belgian said that the main expense of such an expedition would be the equipment of a research ship. The cost of the gondola itself would be relatively little.

Questioned regarding his much-publicized promise to his wife after his stratospheric flight that he would engage in no more dangerous adventures, Prof. Picarde tossed it off lightly.

"Oh, the expedition would be organized as to eliminate almost every possible risk."

Then, almost irrelevantly, he added, "There are wonderful things to be seen in the ocean depths."

WEATHERFORD, Okla. — Two druggists here are ready to admit that the man who sold them a piece of Hungarian paper money for $5 was the best salesman they ever have encountered. The salesman knew no English. The druggists knew no Hungarian.

PHILADELPHIA—Philadelphians walk around on $10,000,000 in unclaimed gold, but it doesn't bother them very much. The cost of procuring it from the 15-foot vein of clay in which it lies would far exceed the value of the metal.

AWAITS COUNTY PEACE CONTEST

Louis J. Raymond, Jr., Will Represent Salem In Declaration Event at Columbiana

Representing Salem churches in the coming county-wide Prince of Peace declaration contest will be Louis J. Raymond, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Raymond of West Fifth st. and a Freshman student in Salem High school.

The county contest will be held at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 12, at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Columbiana.

The various local church winners will compete for a silver medal, emblematic of the county championship, and the right to enter the district contest.

In a letter congratulating Raymond on gaining admittance to the county contest through his victory in the Salem contest, Rev. B. F. Lamb of Columbiana, executive secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches, which sponsors the contests, said:

"Besides gaining experience in public speaking, you have placed yourself on the right side of the peace question and have rendered significant service toward the building of better interdenominational understanding."

Raymond will compete against five other speakers in the Columbiana county contest. They are Jack Cohan of East Palestine, Betty Burt of Columbiana, William Griffiths of Wellsville, Ruth Frank of Leetonia St. Paul's Lutheran church and June Grappy of Leetonia Presbyterian church.

In Tariff Fight

Representative Edith Nourse Rogers, of Massachusetts, is shown as she gave House members at Washington a chance to see whether the Japanese hand was quicker than the American eye. She produced apparently identical articles of apparel, both Japanese and American made, in her speech against reciprocal trade agreements.

A Big Mistake

DALLAS—Texas Christian battered five of Coach Matty Bell's Southern Methodist football players pretty badly last Saturday. Right there, Bell believes, T. C. U. made a big mistake.

"Maybe T. C. U. beat itself out of the southwest conference title when it gave us such a thorough licking," he said today.

It's this way—An S. M. U. victory over Rice institute Saturday would give T. C. U. the title, but it looks bad for the Mustangs. If Rice wins, it takes the title.

Consumers' Gift

Amherst, O.—For the second consecutive year, electricity consumers have received as a Christmas gift a "paid" stamp on their monthly bills.

The board of public affairs, which manages the municipal electric plant, reported business warranted the gift, totaling $3,275.

Awaits Sentence

DAYTON, Dec. 3.—Convicted by an all-woman jury, Irvin Newton, 22, Negro, awaited sentencing today for criminal attack and attempted criminal attack on two white girls. He was a former Roosevelt High school football star.

Union Men Clash

TOLEDO, Dec. 3.—Two men described by police as Committee for Industrial Organization pickets today faced charges of creating a disturbance for activity protesting the reopening of the Toledo Glove company plant, closed since Nov. 1 by a jurisdictional dispute between the CIO and American Federation of labor groups.

The demonstration started, police said, when CIO members learned the AFL group reopened the plant yesterday.

Quiz Grafton Man

ELYRIA, Dec. 3.—A Grafton, man was questioned today in the attack-slugging of Louise Hornbeck, after a sudden turn in the investigation of her death led Lorain county officials to postpone presentation of the case to the grand jury late yesterday.

Returns Lost Boy, Then Delivers Baby Brother

When Patrolman James Mahoney returned lost Delbert Whiteside, Jr., 5, to his home in Louisville, Ky., he never dreamed he would become the hero he did. For when Patrolman Mahoney arrived at the Whiteside residence with Delbert, Mrs. Myrtle Whiteside, the boy's mother, was about to give birth to a child. Patrolman Mahoney stepped into the emergency and delivered the baby, a nine-pound boy, with direction of the mother. The baby has been named James in honor of the midwife-patrolman.

1,000 AT RALLY OF METHODISTS

Fifteen Members of Salem Church Attend Missionary Convention in Youngstown

More than 1000 Methodists from three districts, Youngstown, Steubenville (of which Salem is a part) and Cambridge attended the Aldersgate Missionary convention in Youngstown Trinity M. E. church yesterday.

About 15 members of the Salem church were present. The event, the program of which included three mass meetings of clergy and laymen, and a youth rally, was held in connection with similar meetings throughout the country. The conventions are held in observance of the anniversary of the Million Unit Fellowship and the beginning of the second centennial of the conversion of John Wesley. The Methodist Episcopal church dates its founding from Wesley's experience at a little meeting in Aldersgate st., London, England, on May 24, 1738.

Bishop Frederick T. Keeney, director of Million Unit Fellowship, Bishop Lester Smith of the Cincinnati area, Bishop Charles Mead, resident Bishop of Kansas City area, Bishop Ernest L. Waldorf of the Chicago area, Dr. E. R. Romick and Dr. Charles A. Jones, a member of the World Service commission of Columbus were speakers at various sessions.

The Young people's rally held last evening was addressed by Bishop Waldorf.

EIGHT AMERICAN LEAGUERS CHANGE UNIFORMS

Jimmy Scullion's Cagers To Defend County Honors

Coach Jim Scullion's Olmsted Falls High school cagers will be defending their Cuyahoga county and northeastern Ohio Class B basketball championship when they open their 1937-38 season against Dover at Olmsted Falls tonight.

OHIO COLLEGE TEAMS TRAVEL

Wittenberg Cagers To Make Trip East For Games

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, Dec. 3.—"Play basketball and see the world" seems to be the new Ohio college motto... with Wittenberg of Springfield the leading exponent of donning abbreviated uniforms and tramping the foreign hardwoods.

The "Fighting Lutherans" ... winners of 11 of 18 games last year ... boosted their slate to 25 games this season, and will play the first eight on a 10-day pre-holiday jaunt to the east coast. Just take a look at this itinerary:

Dec. 18—Duquesne at Pittsburgh; Dec. 14—Dickinson at Carlisle, Pa.; Dec. 15—Juniata at Huntington, Pa.; Dec. 16—Lehigh at Bethlehem, Pa.; Dec. 17—St. Thomas at Scranton, Pa.; Dec. 18—Washington at Chestertown, Md.; Dec. 21—Rider at Trenton, N. J.; and Dec. 22—St. Joseph's at Philadelphia.

Then the boys take a vacation until Jan. 6 before banging into the final 17 games ... 10 of them on the Springfield court.

Toledo university takes the "stay-at-home" laurels ... the Rockets getting off the lake shore court for only three of their 20 games. They play a dozen at home before going to Cincinnati to meet Xavier. The other trips are to Kalamazoo and Dayton ... just a hop, skip and a jump away. "Chuck" Chuckovits, the state's high scorer last year, is back at Toledo ... and he's "sudden death" on that Toledo court.

Ohio Wesleyan squeezes a long jaunt into two days of play ... the Bishops meeting Rhode Island State at Providence Dec. 17, and the Y. M. C. A. college at Springfield, Mass., the following evening. After that Coach Ray Detrick's boys stay within the Ohio borders until Feb. 12 when they go to Huntington, W. Va., for a Buckeye loop game with Marshall.

Ohio State covers quite a bit of territory ... but the Big Ten schedule calls for that. The Bucks play at Baltimore, Md., Jan. 1, and at Washington, D. C., Jan. 3 ... and later trips send the Ohioans into Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, and Indiana.

List Schedule

GRANVILLE, Dec. 3.—Tom Rogers, Denison university football coach, announced today an eight-game schedule for 1938. It includes games at home with Defiance, Kenyon, Marietta, Oberlin and Heidelberg and on the road against Wooster, Muskingum, and Wittenberg.

All Ohio Games

ASHLAND, Dec. 3.—Ashland college announced today an all Ohio conference football schedule for next year. Games are slated with Heidelberg, Ohio Northern, Mt. Union and Findlay at home with Wooster, Otterbein, Marietta and Bowling Green on the road.

son, Scullion will be the first coach in Cuyahoga county basketball history to produce three straight championship outfits.

Scullion's team this season is built around four lettermen from last season's quintet which advanced to the state finals of the Ohio Class B tournament.

Heading the list of lettermen is Captain Bob Miller, all-Ohio forward last season. Knapp, Fenderbach and Lewis Sinko, brother of Ed Sinko, who performed brilliantly for Scullion last year, are the other lettermen.

Scullion's football team, which was defending champion among Cuyahoga county Class B schools, lost only two games during the 1937 season, these to Berea, a Class A school, and Fairview, the team which won the county title this year.

Olmsted Falls gained football victories over North Royalton, 13-0; Lakewood "B", 33-13; Bay Village, 61-0; Strongsville, 20-0; Dover, 13-0, and North Olmsted, 13-6.

COACHES FAVOR PRESENT RULES

Grid Mentors Think It Best To Leave Well Enough Alone

By BILL BONI
NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Despite agitation for three specific rules changes designed to help the offense in football, a nation-wide poll of college coaches by The Associated Press today revealed a strong general desire to "leave well enough alone."

This may help simplify the task of the National Collegiate A. A. rules committee, which goes into its annual huddle on New Year's day at Edgewater Park, Miss. This session, which is being held two months earlier than usual, will follow the annual N. C. A. A. convention in New Orleans.

Subject to various reservations, such as those proposed by Notre Dame's Elmer Layden and Nebraska's Biff Jones, a "no tinkering" policy with regard to the rules is advocated by a majority of head coaches. The list favoring conservative approach to any consideration of rules changes includes Jack Sutherland of Pittsburgh, Dick Harlow of Harvard, Bill Kern of Carnegie, Hank Hardwick of Navy, Ray Morrison of Vanderbilt, Wallace Wade of Duke, Stub Allison of California and Harry Kipke of Michigan.

The veteran Glenn (Pop) Warner of Temple heads the coaching wing which feels something drastic should be done to keep the defense, with its five-man line as a prime example, from getting the upper hand on the gridiron.

The three changes most discussed, as likely to aid the offense, comprise (1) return of the goal posts to the goal line; (2) legalizing forward passing from any spot behind the scrimmage line, and (3) forcing the defense to keep a definite number of players on the scrimmage line, preferably six.

All of the coaches probably would join Layden, who wishes "they might legislate a second touchdown for us, so I will not age so rapidly because of our one-touchdown offense."

Defiance Wins

DEFIANCE, Dec. 3.—Defiance college staged a last half rally to defeat Findlay college 37 to 29 in the opening basketball game of the season for both teams last night. The score at the half was deadlocked 21 to 21.

Lead Ball Team

GRANVILLE, Dec. 3.—Coach Sid Gillman yesterday appointed Bill Cornell of Lakewood and Don Watkins of Dayton, senior outfielders, co-captains of next spring's Denison university baseball team.

Play Badminton

DAYTON, Dec. 3.—Sixty contestants from all sections of Ohio will play here Saturday and Sunday in the first annual state badminton tournament.

NATIONAL LOOP TRADING SCENE IS ALL SILENT

Browns Trade Vosmik To Red Sox; G. Walker Leaves Tigers

By PAUL MICKELSON
MILWAUKEE, Dec. 3.—As National leaguers kept their hands in their pockets and held out for sharp bargains on the baseball market, eight American league players prepared for changes of scenery today.

With them went an American league cast-off and a good looking rookie. The deals, only important ones pulled by the magnates after three days of buzzing and talking, were:

St. Louis Browns traded Outfielder Joe Vosmik to the Boston Red Sox for Pitcher Buck Newsom, Outfielder Colonel Buster Mills and the veteran infielder, Ralph "Red" Kress, an old Brown hand who made a comeback with Minneapolis of the American association last season.

Detroit swapped Outfielder Gerald Walker, third baseman Marvin Owen and Mike Tresh, 23-year-old catcher who served with Portland of the Pacific Coast league, to the Chicago White Sox in exchange for Pitcher Vernon Kennedy, outfielder Fred "Dixie" Walker and Infielder Tony Piet.

It was the 6-player deal between the White Sox and Tigers, which broke the calm of the market, one of the dearest in years at the minor league convention. Advised of the deal, the Red Sox and other clubs, notably Cleveland and Washington, now are expected to come up with something good in the way of deals by the time the major league meetings in Chicago close next week.

Nobody was ever excited about the Brown-Red Sox trade but the transaction between the White Sox and Tigers caused considerable commotion and comment.

Sitting it all, one finds both clubs did well for their respective set-ups. The Tigers needed a good pitcher and got it in Kennedy. The 28-year-old right hander won 21 and lost 9 in 1936 but developed a wild streak last season that cut his record to 14 wins and 13 losses. The White Sox needed a third baseman to replace Manager Jimmy Dykes and a hard hitting outfielder and they got them, too, in Owen and the eccentric Walker. Those three players were the key men in the deal. The others may find them-

King Levinsky Prepares To Enter Wrestling Game

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—King Levinsky, one time night mayor and pride of Maxwell street, swelled his chest with a sucking-in sound today until the buttons of his coat nearly popped off.

It was preliminary to an announcement of tremendous importance to him.

"Hey, you louse," he bellowed, pulling up in front of a beer tavern. "You're just the guy I'm looking for."

"I want to make it a wrestle," he parried, squinting his eyes. "There ain't no more mazzima for me fighting any more. From now on I'm a wrestler, a murder of the mat."

The strapping Kingfish, who earned $300,000 with his fists since 1929 and then lost it is going in for what he regards as important dough grunting and growling on the mat. "I gave all them big guys hell in the ring, didn't I?" he quizzed. "You tell 'em pal. Now, I'm going to do the same thing in a wrestle. I'm still the king. I'll pin their ears lopsided. To bad my sister Lena ain't here to back me up. She knows I'm a tough guy. Hot cha."

The Kingfish, who fought them all creditably until he met up with Joe Louis, weighs 220 pounds.

Northwestern Cage Team Plays Today
CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Northwestern will open the Big Ten basketball season tonight against Carleton college, with Chicago, Wisconsin and Minnesota following the Wildcats into action tomorrow night.

The Maroons meet De Paul, which opened its campaign Tuesday night with a 47 to 37 triumph over Valparaiso. Wisconsin tackles Marquette, while the Gophers, co-champions with Illinois last year, open with South Dakota.

Wins In Tourney
AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 3.—Alex Campbell of Dayton carded a 246 yesterday to win the division of the professional golfers' inaugural $2,000 seniors' tournament for players 60 years old or over. In another division, Willie Gordon of Sandusky shot a 244.

Name Co-Captains
OBERLIN, Dec. 3.—Derton Lilley of Toledo and Ray Cummings of Cortland, N. Y., juniors, were named co-captains of Oberlin colleges' 1938 cross-country team yesterday.

Port Wayne, Ind.—Frankie Kolborn, 149, Waterloo, Ia., out-pointed Kid Sorsonia, 150, Indianapolis, (8).

The Dodgers, who gave Business Manager John Gorman the air, are reported dickering with Jim Tierney, former secretary of the Giants, and Jimmy Hamilton, general manager of the Nashville Vols.

MICHIGAN MAY RENEW N. DAME GRID RIVALRY

Colleges Ready to Make Up After 28 Years Of Separation

BY WILLIAM WEEKES
CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Michigan and Notre Dame were ready to "make up" and there was talk of augmenting athletic relationships with the Pacific Coast conference today as the Big Ten opened its two-day winter meeting.

The Wolverines and Irish, potential natural rivals in football, reached the parting of gridiron ways 28 years ago after an eligibility dispute. All athletic traffic between the institutions was suspended after the 1923 conference track and field meet, then open to outside schools, in which the late Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, took the other side in a Michigan protest over the running of the high hurdles race.

Athletic Director Fielding H. Yost of Michigan, revealed that the breach was healed in announcing Tuesday night that Wolverine coaches would be permitted to schedule games with the Irish. Yost indicated that conversations with Elmer Layden, Irish athletic chief, might lead to resumption of football warfare. Renewal of gridiron relationships will have to wait until 1940, however, since both institutions have arranged their cards for 1938 and 1939.

While nothing official had been said, there were reports that the Big Ten might propose that the conference and Pacific Coast league football champions meet annually in post-season combat. This would mean altering the Big Ten's rule against games after the close of the regular season.

Schedules in all sports except football and basketball, will be made and dates and sites for championship meets in track, and other minor sports. The gridiron schedules are made at the spring meetings and a rotating scheduled plan takes care of basketball.

Julian After Second Mat Victory In Salem Tonight

Frank (Toar) Julian, 245-pound strong boy and Salem's gift to the wrestling game, makes his second home-town appearance tonight, meeting George Murphy of Phoenix, Ariz., in the preliminary of the Knights of Pythias' three-match card at the Memorial building.

Julian, a veteran of the "mat and groin" business, has not appeared in Salem since he staged a series of bouts with Paul (Tazan) Orth of Massillon at the Memorial building more than two years ago.

The Stratton-Rubi match is billed as the main go. It will be a 90-minute affair, two out of three falls.

Julian's match will be one-fall 30 minute limit.

Meeting in the semi-final are two of the game's finest light-heavies, George Magyar of Hungary and Roy Ryan of Hoboken, N. J. The match between these two grapplers will be two out of three falls, 60-minute limit.

The show will start promptly 8:15.

Wrestling Results

CAMDEN, N. J.—Ernie Dusk, 235, Omaha, Neb., pinned George Koverly, 220, Kansas City, 30-00.

Hartford, Conn.—Yvon Robert, 220, Montreal, threw Pat Riley, 205, Texas, two straight falls.

Pirrone Through

CLEVELAND, Dec. 3.—Deputy Sheriff Paul Pirrone, veteran of 11 years of fistic warfare in the light welter and middleweight divisions, announced today his definite retirement from the ring.

Salisbury, Md.—Dutch (Ko) Hart, 163, New Jersey, outpointed Joe Fredericks, 170, Philadelphia, (8).

less. The other brings together Henry Armstrong, world featherweight champion, and Tony Chavez of Mexico, the only fighter to win a verdict over the champion in the past 18 months.

Eric Seelig of Germany and Carmen Baill, former Olympic titleholder tangle in an eight-rounder. Three other six-rounders complete the card.

selves operating at different pastures next season.

Except for a possible last minute deal and a perfunctory windup of the minor league convention, which failed to produce any interesting news, the baseball market was expected to be deserted by nightfall. The minor leaguers looked up train schedules for home while the major leaguers went to Chicago where the long-awaited trade of Pitcher Van Lingle Mungo of Brooklyn to either New York, Chicago or Pittsburgh should be announced. Last reports were the Giants held the trump card for the big fire ball man.

BARKER NAMES LAST WINNERS

Gridiron Guesser End Selections On Slender Schedule

By HERBERT W. BARKER
 NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Call this the swan-song of an ugly duckling or the farewell fol-de-rol of a gridiron guesser, about to quit the eight-ball for commodious winter quarters among the mothballs. To make a short story even shorter, prospects for this week's slender schedule appear about as follows:

Southern Methodist-Rice: This determines the Southwest conference crown and a Cotton Bowl opponent for Whizzer White and his University of Colorado buddies. This ballot goes to Rice in the belief that Ernie Lahn's pitching arm has lost none of its power or cunning.

Southern California-U. C. L. A.: Maybe the Trojans still will be train-sick after that jaunt to South Bend, but Southern California must be given a big edge over U. C. L. A., one of the biggest disappointments of the year.

Theater Attractions

Jane Withers and the Hartmans, Paul and Grace, dancing team, are featured in "45 Fathers" tonight and Saturday at the State Theater.

Thomas Beck and Louise Henry are seen in romantic roles.

Forty-five millionaire bachelors sign up as Jane's guardians. They try to make a lady out of her, but she almost makes a wreck out of them.

They try to give her that finish-school finish with Professors Sammie Cohen and George Givot in charge of aesthetic dancing and voice culture, but when the Hartmans show her how to throw voices, dancing and discretion to the winds, it's almost the finish of everybody.

Her Good Deed

Jane, in spite of her ill-luck in doing bad whenever she attempts to do good, manages to save wealthy Thomas Beck from the entanglements of a scheming society agent intent on getting his money. The manner in which she and the Hartmans perform this good deed is enough to make even the dummy laugh.

The Grand will present a western, "Heart of the Rockies", tonight and Saturday. Bob Livingston, Ray Corrigan and Max Terhune, forming the film trio, "The Three Mesquiteers", have the leading roles.

The state rangers and the Mesquiteers are having difficulties because the latter shoot the wild game which comes out of the park preserve to kill their cattle. The rangers' duty is to protect the animals.

The Mesquiteers, on the other hand, believe that vicious man-eating animals should be kept within the boundaries of the preserve, and that the cattlemen are justified in destroying them when they make raids on their cattle.

The Real Despoilers

Meanwhile, the real despoilers of the herds are a gang of backwoods men who live far back in the hills—the Dawson clan, who force small boys to assist them in their rust-

Pastor Sentenced

NEW LEXINGTON, Dec. 3.—Common Pleas Judge E. S. McGonigle today deferred sentencing the Rev. Alex S. Kalassay of Columbus, Hungarian church pastor, after finding him guilty of obtaining $1,200 from Julia and Paul Savony of Congo, Perry county, on the pretense that he needed it to obtain a state liquor inspector's job.

CHAPTER XVII.

Brief good nights were spoken and Lucy Lee dropped gratefully into bed as quickly as possible, only to wake before long at some sound in the quiet house. Was it the door of Pearl's room, which was next to hers and joined to it by a communicating bath? She wondered drowsily if she had dreamed that she heard Pearl's door open . . . the door into the hall?

But in a moment sleep had claimed her again and she knew nothing more until morning came with its glittering sunshine, blue waters and brisk sea breeze. It was while she and Don Ames and Pearl were lying on the beach waiting for their host to join them for a dip, that Pearl said casually: "Neville has promised me a part in the picture. Isn't that wonderful?"

"Why, Pearl," exclaimed Lucy Lee. "Has he really? When did he decide?"

"Oh . . . this morning, I guess," her stepmother answered vaguely, letting warm sand trickle lazily through her fingers.

"Do you know, somehow I had a lowdown hunch he would," Don Ames drawled. "And I'm not often wrong about such things." His sardonic eyes met Pearl's in a fleeting interchange. "I thought he was pretty well sold on the idea . . . last night," he added innocently. "Didn't you?"

"Maybe he was," Pearl assented, watching the lithe, bronzed figure of the director as he approached them from the house. Her tone was triumphant. "Anyway . . . I'm in the picture."

Over night, life became different. Nothing mattered, in fact nothing existed, but the picture. Lucy Lee and Pearl became like creatures in a world apart from reality. Or rather the picture was their real world, the rest but shadow.

Although their roles were minor ones, the part assigned to Pearl ran like a thread through the entire action so that she was called to the studio almost every day, required to be made up and on the set. Lucy Lee's calls were less frequent, but as she was technically a member of the so-called studio stock company for the training of inexperienced players, she, too, was on the set each day, for purposes of observation if nothing else.

A nine o'clock call meant early rising, a hurried breakfast, and then to the studio to make up, dress and be ready for work at the appointed hour. Pearl had become a different person. No longer indolent and tyrannical, she was brisk and indulgent, allowing even Wakefield Carter to go his solitary way without nagging or interference.

Of all the worlds within a world, this was the one which to Pearl meant complete fulfillment. She was a screen actress now, and she took to it like the proverbial duck to water, loving every moment. During the long, wearisome waits which are a part of every production, she was never bored. The hours never dragged. She was quick to observe and she acted with assurance and keen delight. Her work had about it no trace of the amateur.

On the other hand, Lucy Lee was nervous and uncertain, in spite of the feeling of confidence she had had before the picture actually began! It was not as simple and easy as she had imagined, and she felt self-conscious and awkward.

One day she was very silent on the way home from the studio but as the car pulled up before the house all her worries "thought" was driven from her mind by the sight of another automobile drawn up under the acacia tree beside the road. The parked car bore a Louisiana license but even without that she would have recognized it instantly.

There could not be another body of exactly that model because Clyde Dixon had made it himself, and it was painted an odd shade of blue-green, because that was the color she had chosen. Its once shining finish was now dust covered and the mud-encrusted wheels told of the long journey across country.

A tall, bareheaded young man came forward smiling broadly as she and Pearl stepped from their machine.

"Lucy Lee!" He stopped, looked from one to the other. "It is you . . . isn't it, honey? Bless my soul and body, you and Pearl look so dressed up I can't hardly be sure!"

Lucy Lee made an instinctive movement toward him and would have been in his arms had she followed her natural impulse. But she halted suddenly as she felt Pearl's restraining hand holding her back.

"Why, Clyde," Lucy Lee stammered. "What on earth—how did you get here?"

He laughed, waving a hand toward the travel-stained car.

"In old Maria there, of course. We both wanted to see you so bad we just naturally took to the road and came out here to California the quickest route we could find." He turned his smile from one to the other. "Hello, Pearl. Sure is a sight for sore eyes, the way you both look."

Pearl's answering smile was brief and bleak.

"When did you get here?" she asked.

"About an hour ago. I reckon it was. The darky up to the house told me you would be home any minute, so I thought I would wait down here where I could watch the road for you to come. Mr. Carter was in his room napping, she said. So I didn't think I ought to disturb him."

Pearl surveyed the traveler with cold scrutiny. It was only natural that after days of driving over dusty highways, his clothing should look far from immaculate. But what annoyed her most, aside from his presence here in the first place, was the fact that he seemed to take his welcome for granted. Apparently he failed to realize that things were different now.

Well, he must be put in his place without further delay. He and his rattletrap old car and his countrified clothes; sitting out in front of the house as if he owned the place! What if some of their studio friends had driven up and found him there? One thing was certain. She was not going to have Clyde Dixon hanging around. It was a lucky thing Mr. Carter had not seen him. He would have been sure to invite him to stay, at least for dinner.

"It is nice to see you," Pearl said quickly, extending her gloved hand. "I'm sorry Lucy Lee and I have an engagement for dinner and to go to a premiere. We're late already and have to hurry. Come on, Lucy Lee."

"But Pearl—I want to talk to Clyde. He has come all the way from home—"

"I know he has. But you can talk to him tomorrow just as well, can't you?"

lated. "We can't treat Clyde like that! Why—"

"Listen to me!" Pearl exclaimed in annoyance. "The sooner you put him out of your life, the better for him and everybody. He ought to see what's happened, himself—without waiting to be told. The dumb cluck!"

Thus the discussion went on as they dressed, Pearl beating down the girl's scruples, arguing that the kindest and fairest solution of the problem was to make Clyde realize at once the changed state of affairs.

Lucy Lee had her career to think of, didn't she? A marriage or even a friendship with a boy who was only a clever mechanic, was simply out of the question. It would ruin her chances forever and surely even Lucy Lee could not be as big a fool as that. The best thing Clyde Dixon could do to prove he really cared for her was to take himself away without delay—and Pearl was perfectly willing to tell him so, if necessary.

CHRISTMAS FEVER CURED BY CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

It's the story of the man who "jumped into the bramble-bush and scratched out both his eyes; and when he found his eyes were out, with his might and main, he jumped into another bramble bush and scratched them in again." When exposed to Christmas Fever (as you will be, it is epidemic in Salem right now) hasten to your favorite store (MacMillan's is good) for a large supply of Christmas Spirit (the "Gift" Brand). Take daily until cured. It's the only specific.

This a free word of advice from the experienced.
